Blessed May! The custom is that this is the month of Mary, Jesus' Blessed M time to honor her in a special way, just as Jesus would want to honor His m in heaven, we cannot give her a bouquet of flowers directly, but we can give of flowers and sing to her some hymns. That's what we'll do at May Crown 10 at mass. We hope to have a short procession to the outdoor statue of O crown that image of Mary. Please join us!

A special word of congratulation to Ryder Cooper on having received the last Sunday! Ryder most certainly deserves this award, as he is a faithful ser and does it with great reverence and pride, and a bit of helpful direction to ers. I know he has the thanks of our whole parish, along with our other ser worship well and fully at the altar of God.
