IN HOC SIGNO, VINCES!

IN THIS SIGN, YOU WILL CONQUER!

FROM THE PASTOR—THE SIGN OF THE CROSS

There is one way by which we may recall the triumph of the Holy Cross upon ourselves each day: the Sign of the Cross. When we hear this phrase, we normally associate it with the vertical motion of moving our hand from forehead to breast, followed by a horizontal motion from left shoulder to right shoulder, forming a cross over ourselves. But this is not the only way we can make this sign. Consider the way we sign ourselves before the Gospel is proclaimed: a small cross made with our thumbs on our foreheads, on our lips, and on our hearts. One custom seen in Spanish-influenced cultures (both Spain and Latin America) is to lay the thumb over the forefinger and make a visible cross, using that configuration to cross oneself, then kiss the finger cross. Whatever method, this sacramental is a crucial part of our prayer life and a symbol of our discipleship in Jesus Christ through His Catholic Church.

We have no clear indications of when the Sign of the Cross began, though there are numerous records about it in antiquity. The Church father Tertullian writes in the early third century that Christians mark their forehead with the cross, while St. Basil the Great in the fifth century remarks that this sign was learned from the apostles and handed down as part of tradition. Many see this as a conversion of the ancient Jewish practicing of using signs (see Ezekiel 9:4). No matter its origin, the Sign of the Cross is a fundamental aspect of the daily life of the Christian.

In using the Sign of the Cross, we ought to be mindful of its benefits. To start, it is a reminder of our baptism, in which we were rescued by Christ through the power and victory of the Cross to no longer be a slave of Satan but to become a child of God and a member of the Church. At baptism, we first received this sign and were sealed through the Cross, so we should remember that we belong with and to Christ when we make the sign. We are also professing our faith in making the Sign of the Cross. We typically associate this sign with the phrase “In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit”, so we ought to recall that we are acknowledging the reality of the Godhead in this sign along with showing that we are Catholics. Most other Christians do not use this sign, so it has become associated specifically with Catholics.

The Sign of the Cross is also a great deterrent against sin and the attack of the demons. It is in the Cross that Christ overcame the wickedness and malice of Satan and his demonic legions through His humility. We must humble ourselves in our fight with temptation and the enemies of Christ and invoke God through this sign. Tracing the Cross on ourselves not only recalls the saving power of Christ but also is abhorrent to the demons. Finally, it is a great beginning into prayer by recalling He who interceded for us on the Cross and still intercedes for us at the right hand of the Father.

Let us never be afraid to use the Sign of the Cross in our lives but utilize it with simplicity and humility so as to call upon God in our every need and to place all things under the Cross. Let us follow Mary in tracing this sign throughout our lives so that we may be worthy to share in Christ’s victory forever. Fr. Jacob Straub
